

Harold L. Potter

1st Lt., Fifth Infantry Division, Third army, medical department, supervisor of evacuation of combat casualties in the European theater. Overseas March 1944, serving in Normandy, northern France, Ardennes and Rhineland campaigns, battle of Metz, Third army's crossing of Rhine, the battles of the Bulge and Ruhr pocket, and action in Germany, Austria and Czechoslovakia. Formerly with 35th Division. Was Private in medical detachment, 130th Field Artillery when it mobilized in Hutchinson, December, 1940. With 35th Division at Camp Robinson, Arkansas and in California. To Europe from Camp Grant, Illinois, with hospital train, serving as a combat medic in European Theater of Operations in five campaigns. In service five years, December 23, 1940 to December 8, 1945. Son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Potter, South Hutchinson, Kansas