May Besore Kirch married Bluford A. Sidener (1862-1932) at Livingston, Park, Montana, on September 20, 1920. They returned to Kansas and lived in Rozel, Pawnee County; Greensburg, Kiowa County; and Mullinville, Kiowa County. Bluford was a former bank president, but no trade or profession is listed for Bluford or Mae in later censuses.

Bluford died in 1932 in Los Angeles, California.

Mae Besore Sidener, 51, residence Topeka, Kansas, married James D. Reynard, 49, (1892-1952) residence Houston, Texas, on March 1, 1941 at Kay, Oklahoma.

Mae's mother, Emma Reiderer, died in 1946 at Lincoln, Lancaster County, Nebraska. Mae died there four years later in 1950. Surviving was her husband James, and her brother Jay. M. Besore (1897-1973). Mae was buried at her birthplace, Burdett, Pawnee County Kansas.

I haven't found a record yet of how Mae used her creative energy after the Kirch divorce and closing of the Kirch studio in Greenburg. Did she continue to shoot photos?
